Bhide & Ors. vs. Pt. Ravi Shankar Shukla University, Raipur & Ors.) the petitioners submitted representation before the respondent, but even after lapse of four weeks, the same is not being disposed of. He also submits that reminder has also been given; even then the respondent is not deciding the representation of the petitioners.

In the circumstances, the respondent is directed to decide the representation of the petitioner at the earliest, but not later than four weeks from today. If the respondent fails to decide the representation within the stipulated period, then the petitioners shall be entitled to initiate contempt proceedings against the respondent for violation of the Court order.
